

Jacob Garratt

Toronto, On

E-Mail: jakeg538@gmail.com

Objective

Seeking a position that will benefit my web development experience, positive interaction skills and industry contacts so I can improve my overall skills as a result.

Skills

- Excellent knowledge of web designing and development using the latest tools and techniques.
- Strong command over HTML5, CSS, JavaScript, jQuery, Photoshop / Gimp, Bootstrap, Github, and other applications and frameworks that aid in web development.
- Excellent knowledge of web best practices and standards.
- Ability to develop responsive and cross browser-compatible websites.
- Complete understanding of SEO practices and standards.
- Ability to communicate with clients in a professional manner.

Experience

Freelance Web Designer / Developer

January 2015 - Present

- Design, develop, maintain and upgrade different websites. As well as preform maintenance and upgrades for existing websites.
- Create multiple browser compatible and responsive websites.
- Preform testing and debugging.
- Completing all the projects within budget and timeline.

Computer Repair Technician

January 2008 - December 2013

Self-employed. Midland, on

- Preformed repair and maintenance on computers and related peripherals. Installed new hardware, software, evaluated technical issues and solved customer concerns.

Computer Technician / Sales Associate

September 2006 – December 2008

Main Street Computers. Penetanguishene, on

- Interacted with customers and provided friendly and polite customer service.

Education

Georgian College, Barrie, On

September 2009 – April 2012

- Received Diploma in Web and General Computer Studies program.
- Hardware and software troubleshooting, desktop software installation and support, hardware installation support and troubleshooting, basic programming.
- One year of business administration, September 2009 – April 2010.